15.1 Coach boats shall conspicuously display identification of the team being coached. A coach boat is a boat under the direction or control of a person gathering information or giving material support for the benefit of particular competitors either on or off the water.

15.2 The OA will not provide berths for coach boats.

15.3 Any interference by a coach boat with the racing or event organisation may result in a penalty applied at the discretion of the IJ to the associated skipper or team.

16 OTHER REQUIREMENTS

16.1 All crew members must wear life jackets while racing, it is not sufficient to just have them onboard.

17 RISK STATEMENT

17.1 Competitors participate in this event entirely at their own risk and they are reminded of the provisions of RRS 4, Decision to Race. Match Racing is by its nature an unpredictable sport and therefore involves an element of risk. By taking part in the event, each competitor agrees and acknowledges that:

(a) They are aware of the inherent element of risk involved in the sport (and these events in particular) and accept responsibility for the exposure of themselves, their crew and any boat supplied to them to such inherent risk whilst taking part in the event;

(b) They are responsible for the safety of themselves, their crew, their supplied boat and their other property whether afloat or ashore;

(c) They accept responsibility for any injury, damage or loss to the extent caused by their own actions or omissions;

(d) By participating in any race, they are satisfied that any supplied boat is in good order, equipped to sail in the event and they are fit to participate;

(e) The provision of a race management team, safety boats, umpires and other officials and volunteers by the organiser does not relieve them of their own responsibilities;

(f) The provision of safety boat support is limited to such assistance, particularly in extreme weather conditions, as can be practically provided in the circumstances;

(g) They have considered their own personal insurance position and are satisfied they have adequate cover for the event.

(h) All those taking any part in the event do so at their own risk. The OA, its associates and appointees accept no responsibility for any loss, damage, injury or inconvenience incurred, howsoever caused.
